Cowboys' Romo Donates Autographed Memorabilia to the Woodall Foundation

Adam Carriker, Tony Romo and Martin Woodall before the Mavs/Thunder game.

On April 3rd, Dallas Cowboys quarterback, Tony Romo was Martin Woodall's guest at the American Airlines Center to watch the Dallas Mavericks play the Oklahoma City Thunder. To show his continued support of the Woodall Foundation,

Tony autographed a Cowboys' game jersey along with several footballs and presented them to Martin prior to the game. These items will be donated throughout the year by the Woodall Foundation to the live and silent auctions of our beneficiaries.

Last month the Bryan's House Open Golf Tournament was the first to benefit from the Romo memorabilia by accepting a $400 bid for one of the autographed, NFL footballs. CONGRATULATIONS to Bryan's House and the lucky bidder!

Woodall Foundation Celebrates 10 Years of Donating Tickets

50 tickets were donated to the Harlem Globetrotters on January 10th at the American Airlines Center

Every year many events come to the American Airlines Center in Dallas but, unfortunately, not everyone can afford the price of a ticket. Because the Woodall Foundation and our donors are dedicated to "building a brighter future for kids", we are happy to provide complementary tickets to events like the Harlem Globetrotters and Disney on Ice. This August will mark the tenth year that the Woodall Foundation has donated tickets to the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus for local children faced with medical hardships. To sponsor a child, please contact Adam Carriker at (214) 498-4284

Woodall Foundation Joins Dallas Children's Charity Toy Drive

Martin Woodall and Adam Carriker sorting the pallets of toys.

Woodall Foundation & Dallas Margarita Society volunteers loading the toys onto the truck.

Most people believe that "toy drives" only take place during the holidays. What they forget is that many deserving kids go without gifts to commemorate their birthdays and other special occasions each and everyday. The Woodall Foundation and the Dallas Children's Charities recently combined their efforts to distribute thousands of dollars of toys to local youth organizations such as: Bryan's House, Texas Scottish Rite Hospital and the Christian Community Action Network.

A group of Woodall Foundation and Dallas Margarita Society volunteers collected, sorted and delivered over 15 pallets of new toys to hundreds of kids across the Dallas Metroplex.

The Woodall Foundation would like to thank the Dallas Margarita Society and their Vice President of Charity, Tony Strong, for all the dedication and hard work required to make this toy drive a success.

We hope to grow this tradition and make it an annual event and have already started collecting items for next year. Please contact the Woodall Foundation at www.woodallfoundation.com or the Dallas Children's Charities at www.dms-dcc.org to volunteer or make a donation. Together we can ensure that no child goes without.
